

STATE of MINNESOTA

- WHEREAS: Your vote is your voice; and
- WHEREAS: Registering to vote empowers eligible citizens to exercise their right to vote on Election Day; and
- WHEREAS: Minnesota has built a culture and tradition of voting that is driven by engaged and informed citizens who greatly value their expression of civic duty; and
- WHEREAS: While Minnesota has over 3.1 million registered voters, an additional 800,000 citizens are eligible, but have not yet registered to vote; and
- WHEREAS: The voter registration process in Minnesota is easier and more convenient than ever before with applications available online, and at every state agency and all 87 county offices throughout the state, and other options available such as online voter registration, same-day registration, and when applying to get a driver's license; and
- WHEREAS: The State of Minnesota has an online voter registration system enabling citizens to register, check, and update their registration status; and
- WHEREAS: The need for all Minnesotans to stay restless until every eligible citizen is registered to vote, and uses that vote as their voice in the 2015 and 2016 elections.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, September 22, 2015, as:

VOTER REGISTRATION DAY

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 26th day of August.
