

STATE of MINNESOTA

- WHEREAS: More than 137,000 Minnesotans are victims of crime each year and may suffer emotional, physical, psychological, and financial harm as a result; and
- WHEREAS: Since the signing of the Minnesota Crime Victim Bill of Rights in 1983, Minnesota statute has allowed crime victims to be notified of the progress of prosecution, and to be present and provide input; and
- WHEREAS: The Victims of Crime Act (VOCA), passed by Congress in 1984, affirmed a national commitment to helping victims rebuild their lives by establishing the Crime Victims' Fund, a major source of funding for services and compensation to victims of crime throughout the United States; and
- WHEREAS: Crime Victims' Rights Week, April 10-16, 2016, provides an opportunity to recognize the Victims of Crime Act as a major bedrock of support for victim services and to reaffirm our nation's commitment to addressing the needs of victims of crime; and
- WHEREAS: Minnesota has been a leader in dynamic solutions to provide services to victims in their journey toward recovery and justice, and is joining forces with victim service programs, criminal justice officials, and concerned citizens throughout America, to observe the 32nd Anniversary of the Victims of Crime Act during National Crime Victims' Rights Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 10-16, 2016, as:

CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS WEEK

in the state of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the state of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 5th day of April.
